

BECOME A SPONSOR OF THE APPALACHIAN UNDERGROUND CORROSION SHORT COURSE

The 71st Appalachian Underground Corrosion Short Course (AUCSC) continues the tradition of bringing engineers, industry experts, and corrosion technicians together for three days of exciting learning, networking, and collaboration. The objective of AUCSC 2026 is to provide key topics such as corrosion causes, instrumentation, surveys, cathodic protection, pipe coatings, and various control methods. This event attracts veteran corrosion experts, engineers, and newcomers to the field. Seize the opportunity to promote your organization at this year's event.

As a sponsor, your company will be widely recognized by the conference organizer in the AUCSC Program, on the AUCSC website, and on a banner displayed at the AUCSC 2026 event.
