NACE CERTIFICATION EXAMS

During the Appalachian Underground Corrosion Short Course, NACE International offers examinations to help corrosion professionals earn specialized certifications in various categories and levels.

- The NACE certification exams are offered on Thursday during the week of the Short Course from 8:00 am to 5:00 pm
- AUCSC attendees may take an exam at any time on Thursday, as long as they completed their exams by 5:00 pm. (For example, if you're taking a 4-hour exam, you must start taking the exam by 1:00 pm; if you are taking a 2-hour exam, you must start taking the exam by 3:00, etc.)
- Two hour, four hour, and eight hour exams are offered.
- The most popular exam is the CP Technician exam
- Once an individual takes an exam, he/she then has 5 years to complete the certification process.

Please contact NACE for additional information at (281) 228-6211 or <http://www.nace.org/Training-Certification/>

Representatives from NACE will also be available at the Short Course in the Mylan Park Ruby Expo Center (where AUCSC Exhibits and Registration are located) to answer questions regarding NACE examinations.
